Activities

STUDENT COUNCIL

STANDING—Mr. Paschal, Bill Berry, Don Winsor, Alvin Lindahl
SEATED—Roger Albert, John Davis, Patsy Milroy, Pres. Jack McWhorter; Sec'y Bill Caldwell; Shirley Fry, Virginia Reed, Dean Schirm.

Speak through representation. Present your views through the Student Council. They are the links between faculty and student body.

Student Council activities this year were innumerable. Their greatest and most remarkable achievement was promoting the sale of Defense Stamps. They set a goal mountain high but the sky was not their limit. Each and every student of V. H. S. purchased stamps weekly, pushing the total into thousands of dollars.

The Council also left a lasting memorial this year, a service scroll, dedicated to the former V. H. S. students now serving their country.

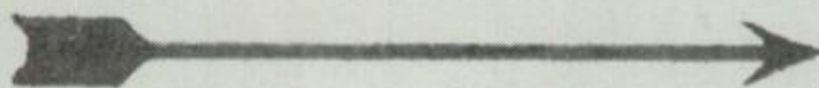

Sponsorship of W. P. A. week and the first school dance boosted the Council's funds to permit the purchase of National Honor Society pins. They accepted the responsibilities of administering the Junior Red Cross and also to supervise all school activities.

Eleven students representing the four classes compose the organization. Out of this number Jack McWhorter was elected president and Bill Caldwell, secretary. Mr. Paschal is their sponsor.

To this group we give our sincere congratulations for the splendid service rendered during the school year. You truly deserve it!

The

Staff

This has been a year of hard-working determination on the part of those interested in publishing an "Arrow" for 1944. The staff has waded through priorities, shortages, contract cancellations, and a multitude of obstructions to finally develop your Arrow. Luck has been with us and we are proud to present your book of memories of Vinton High School.

"Mick Kruse," chief photographer, and his staff have photographed V. H. S. from roof to basement. KaDel Urice and his assistants have written "all" while Nadine Bobzein and John Richart dealt in "high finance" to glean the necessary "mazooma." Editor Don Winsor and his assistant, Mary Jean Countermine, along with the sponsors Mr. Paschal and Mr. Lagomarcino, have arranged and rearranged the materials countless times to make possible the presentation of facts and figures, ideas and events, in the most interesting manner all for you, fellow students of V. H. S.

THE EDITOR.

Vinton High's only newspaper goes to press every two weeks; containing all news from who was seen where they shouldn't have been, to results of faculty meetings. Twenty some volunteers compose the staff. KaDel Urice is editor in chief aided by Nancy Hartman as junior assistant editor; Mary Jean Countermine serves as Business Manager. The advance commercial classes operate "our linotype machines," or stencil cutting. Miss McIlrath advises the staff on "make up" and production, while the English department aids in the story writing.

The paper has been printed in various colors this year with the Christmas issue displaying the Yuletide colors and the St. Patrick's issue in green. One of the added features of the P. & G. this year has been the "polls" periodically conducted on such timely questoins as: "Do you think there should be a year of compulsory military training after the war for all eighteen year olds?" Many other questions were presented to the students for their opinions. The April first issue concerning the Botanical Gardens was a successful Fool's Day hoax.

A varied subject matter combined with super mimeographing has made the years' P. & G. a success from start to finish.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Through four years of high school education each minute has been spent writing a recommendation. School has been serious business, the teacher is the "boss". These teachers have judged students on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service in school work. Seven seniors and four juniors were selected by them this year as those best fulfilling the four ideals of this organization. Jeanne Clausen, Jack McWhorter, June Schmidt, and KaDel Urice were the four members of the class of '44 who were honored by this selection in their junior year.

The National Honor Society holds a position of prestige all over America. Society looks toward it as a foundation for the future generation. Students wearing the National Honor Society pin may hold their heads high with pride for it is an honor given to a select few.

Juniors receiving the award this year are Charles Holland, Don Brickley, Nancy Hartman and Jack McDowell. Seniors receiving the award: Dick Corbett, Mary Jean Countermine, Nadine Bobzien, John Richart, Don Winsor, Betty Walter, Betty Ann Hensing.

The Vinton chapter was organized in 1925 adopting the name of Sigma Lambda Gamma in 1941.

T. N. T.—dynamite for the teaching profession. Tomorrow's New Teachers are today's amateurs. The seventeen girls enrolled in the Normal Training Club have been striving to learn what psychology can be used most effectively on their prospective students. Miss Knipfer, faculty sponsor, has given the senior girls a chance to test their ability by placing them in rural teaching positions for a period of a week under the watchful eye of an experienced teacher.

The fundamentals of music were studied on certain nights from four to five with the help of Miss Cheney from the School for the Blind.

The club holds regular meetings once a month. An occasional social gathering offers a change from serious thinking.

Officers for the past year were Margaret Lindeman, president; Charlotte Mitchell, vice-president; Dorothy Schlottfelt, secretary; Glenith Hurst, treasurer.

"V" CLUB

The "V" Club was organized in Vinton High in 1928 to honor the winner of a major letter award in a major sport.

"Punk" Oppelt served as president this year; Willy Kelly, vice-president, and Allan King, secretary-treasurer.

Homecoming time created a stir among the boys as to whom they should select as Sports Queen. Mary Jean Countermine obtained the majority of the votes and was crowned Sports Queen of V. H. S. by Jack McWhorter, president of the Student Council.

The revised constitution contained new rules pertaining to the kind of letters that other V. H. S. organizations can offer to their members.

The Galloping Activated Vitamins better known as Girls' Athletic "V" Club, is organized to stimulate a wholesome program of physical activities which will contribute to the all round development of high school girls. The membership includes twenty-two peppy junior and senior girls under the sponsorship of an equally active advisor, Mrs. Smith.

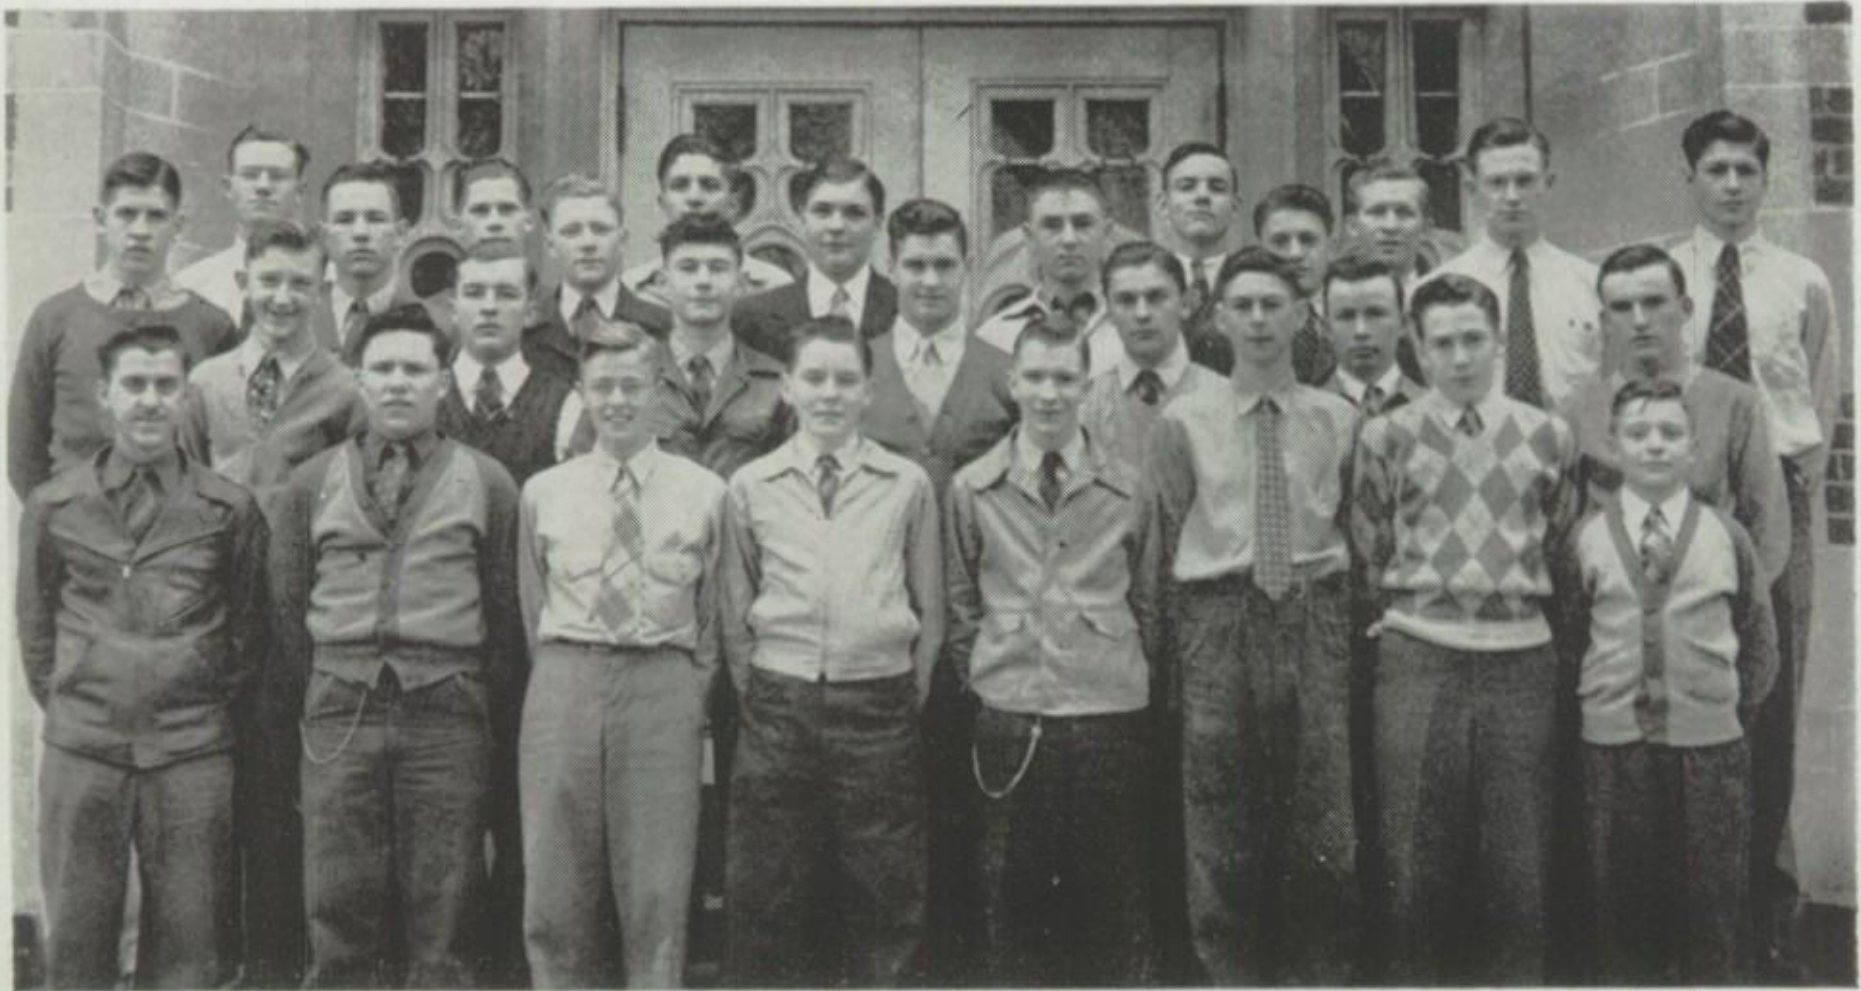

Their activities consist of volleyball, basketball, softball, hiking, tennis and monthly parties. When a girl has earned 250 points and has completed her sophomore year she is eligible to be initiated into the club. Stars are given to those ambitious persons earning 800 activity points. Each year a basketball tournament is held to determine the best team of the four classes.

At the completion of the school year a banquet is given at which the winning team is presented with a trophy and individual awards are made. The president is required to be a senior girl; the vice-president a junior who automatically replaces the president at the close of the year. The officers for the past year were: Dorothy Shotwell, president; Florence Campbell, vice-president; Betty Ann Hensing, secretary and treasurer.

All the members are required to carry on a supervised farming practice which expounds the F. F. A. motto: Learning to do, Doing to learn, Earning to live, and Living to serve.

Don Cantonwine was elected president this year, Alvin Lindahl, vice-president; Allan King, secretary; Zenis Johnson, treasurer; and Oliver Schminke, reporter. Mr. Cree, the new Vocational Agriculture Teacher, is the advisor of the organization. The Chapter granted three honorary memberships this year: Mr. Cope, Mr. Paschal, and Mr. Cree received this honor.

Due to the war conditions the annual Grain Poultry and Egg Show was not held this year, but the Chapter was nevertheless quite active. They sponsored two assembly programs, maintained the usual refreshment stand at the football games, and have furthered their efforts in "Living to serve" by having a parents night with a wonderful turnout and several other meetings opened to the public.

The F. F. A. Chapter is one of the older organizations of the school, however, this year is the first that two members have received the highest award offered by the Iowa F. F. A. Association, that of Iowa Farmer Degree. Alvin Lindahl and KaDel Urice both received this degree.

The Club is under the direction of Mr. Lagomarcino and is open to all interested having approximately 31 members this year.

The officers for the past year are: President, Colleen Taylor; Vice-president, Bonnye Moody; and Secretary-Treasurer, Dorothy Shotwell.

These officers, together with the other members have introduced new yells, and led the spirit of V. H. S. to the top. May it never fall.

LIBRARY CLUB

"A blessed companion is a book." This short but meaningful quotation could easily be the theme of the library class who eagerly assists the students and teachers in finding books and magazines. They also doubled by serving as ushers at all High School events.

Twenty girls from the three upper classes compose the Library Class and are assisted by Mrs. Luckey, who helps in classifying new books, and Miss Brannen, who manages the practical side of the library work. After a busy day checking out books of Shakespeare and other weighty volumes, the club would often engage in an evening of rousing good recreation. The class was originated about ten years ago under the leadership of Mrs. Luckey.

The club officers this year are Margaret Lindeman, president; Betty Bergstrand, vice-president; and Betty Ann Hensing, secretary-treasurer.

A first division rating at pre-state music contest climaxed a season in which the girls didn't know whether they would have a leader from one week to the next. Mr. Kosowsky took the group under his baton during the second semester.

Thirty girls from all the four classes compose this musical group and are endeavoring to acquaint themselves with a wide repertoire of songs, and learn the art of proper vocal production.

Virginia Norris is the chief executive officer of the organization and June Schmidt is the vice-president.

Several concerts were presented during the year and a dance sponsored by the Club for the students.

June Schmidt won a first place rating at the pre-state contest and second at the State contest in Vinton. Virginia Norris, Donna Walter, the sextet and trio all received a number two rating at the pre-state contest.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

2nd Row—Miss McIlrath, Jeanne Clausen, Nadine Bobzien, Margaret Smittkamp, Evelyn Liebsch, Marilyn Appleton.

The Commercial Club, first organized this year under the direction of Miss McIlrath, was done so for the purpose of earning awards offered by the Gregg Publishing Co., New York. Ten girls subscribed to "The Gregg Writer", a magazine giving tips for typists, stories written in shorthand, United States honor rolls in commercial awards, and many other magazine articles. The club met twice a month and when there were no dates open for meetings they were allowed time in class. Articles to be set up correctly, rough draft work, dictation and typing given at various rates of speed constituted the subject matter for the awards. Each meeting was a party in itself because it proved that work can be made enjoyable if you try.

The girls were entertained twice this year. Once at the home of Betty Hensing for supper and games. The other at the high school as guests of Miss McIlrath.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"SPOOKY TAVERN"

This play is centered around Willie Worgel (Dale Kelly), a stuttering college freshman who loves detective stories. The female end was taken care of nicely by Lillian Donley and Evelyn Lasher, who played Florabel and Joyce Wingate. Their negro mammy, Bedelia (Dorothy Shotwell) accompanies them to "Spooky Tavern" to look the place over. The play is filled with all kinds of weird "going-ons". John Richart and Allan King are two college boys who come to the tavern looking for Joyce and Florabel. John took the part of Ralph Channing, the son of a rich banker; and Allan, Terry Tanner, a star football player. Betty Walter as Lucy Hacker gave many thrills with her eerie ghost stories, and Dick Corbett as her brother, Lon, along with Punk Oppelt as Blackie Simms and Tom Register as Farone, provided thrills and chills as the gangsters peddling dope to students. The part of the Ghost Woman was played by Evelyn Yerkes, who, with her blood-curdling screams, added much excitement to the plot.

In the end it is discovered that all of the strange happenings going on at the tavern were all a part of a big hoax to break Willie of reading detective stories. For most people such an experience would cure them of reading any more spooky stories but Willie only asks his Uncle for another volume of Sherlock Holmes.

This mystery-comedy play was under the very capable direction of Miss Charlotte Brannen. It was given on April 26.

3rd Row—Allan King, Dick Corbett, Tom Register, Dale Kelly.

DEBATE

Something new has been added! Last fall a new teacher arrived with the vision of a V. H. S. Debate team before him. The vision became a reality. Mr. Lagomarcino coached his enthusiastic squad through a full schedule.

After several weeks of study the team journeyed to Wilson High in Cedar Rapids for their first real practice session. V. H. S. was represented this year by Don Winsor, Charles Holland, Bob Hilliard, Jack McWhorter, and Tom Register.

The first tournament, held at Cedar Falls, saw "Chuck" win a four year scholarship to Iowa State Teachers College.

After more practice debates with Independence, they traveled again, this time to Waterloo for the district tournament. Vinton split, winning four of eight.

Finally came the state tournament in the Old Capitol at Iowa City. Vinton emerged with a second among the Class B entries.

Vinton did remarkably well, for V. H. S. has been credited with wins over Roosevelt of Cedar Rapids, Maquoketa, West Waterloo, Wilson, Decorah, Ames, St. Joseph of Des Moines, Independence, and Carroll.

SPANISH CLUB

In order to further interest in speaking and reading the Spanish language, the Spanish Club was organized in 1943. The Club's activities supplement and vitalize the fundamentals of Spanish that are learned in the class room. Any student taking Spanish is qualified for membership. The membership this year was composed of four junior and three senior students.

At the beginning of this year the senior Spanish students entertained the juniors at an initiation party, and at Christmas a party was held at the home of the Club sponsor, Miss Brannen. Modern popular songs were translated into Spanish and the Club enjoyed singing with Bill Berry at the piano.

The following officers were elected this year: John Richart, president; Tom Register, vice-president; and Kathryn Bickel, secretary-treasurer.

LATIN CLUB

 Second Row—Jean Port, Janet Miller, Alvin Brickley, Marjorie Richardson, Arlene Heppe.
 Third Row—Duane Schmidt, Colleen Gordon, Margaret Fischer, Esther Ann Soderbloom, Jim Kruse.

The Latin Club is a social organization, it's sole purpose being to have lots of good times. Their genial sponsor is Miss Bogard, who always lends a helping hand at meetings and parties. At an early meeting this fall Marjorie Richardson was elected president and Jim Kruse secretary-treasurer. An initiation for the new members was given in September. Their official costume for the day was Latin togas with large frying pans suspended from the neck. In the evening a party was given, the high light of which was "Dr. Kruses gory operation." In mid-winter a sleigh was rented and all the members of the club toured the town as guests of the first year members. A picnic in the spring closed closed their social activities for the year. In May the second year members of the club presentd a program for the Junior high classes to encourage them to take Latin upon entering high school, for all members agree, "We've had a lot of fun."

"BROTHER GOOSE"

All-High School Play

Romance and comedy combined were supplied by the All-High School Play this year under the direction of Miss Bernice Brandau, on November 12.

Jeff (William Esderts) is the male lead who is tied down with the responsibility of raising his younger brother and sisters; however, his actual profession is architecture. Housekeepers come and go until Peggy (Kathryn Bickel) enters Jeff's life. She is a girl of about 20 who very capably handles the children—Hyancith (Virginia Reed), a football player and tom-boy all the way through; Carol (Mary Parmater), interested in contests and always trying to win things such as cars, trips to Hollywood, etc.; and Wes (Kenny Winsor), who at the present time is immensely interested in girls, especially Eve (Jo Ann Letts), the new neighbor girl.

Peggy is in love with Jeff but has stiff competition for his affections in the person of Lenore Hudson (Donna Harmon), the bubble gum heiress. To win his attentions Lenore pretends to own the vacant lot next door, where Hy's team plays. She hires Jeff to draw plans for a house of the lot and at the same time Mrs. Trimmer (Colleen Taylor) wants Jeff to draw up plans for a Wee Blue Inn. Many conflicts result but in the end all turns out well. Peggy gets Jeff and Hy's team gets to play football in the vacant lot.

Other members of the cast include Kathryn Welton, Dorothy Shotwell, and Tom Wilson.

The Vinton High School band is divided into three groups, the concert band, the marching band, and the pep band. During the autumn season the marching band performed marching routines and played pep music for the football crowds. The marching band was supplemented by the flashy twirling section which grew to be a popular attraction on all occasions at which they appeared. The pep band provided the peppy music for all home basketball games. The Concert band successfully presented five well attended concerts during the past school year.

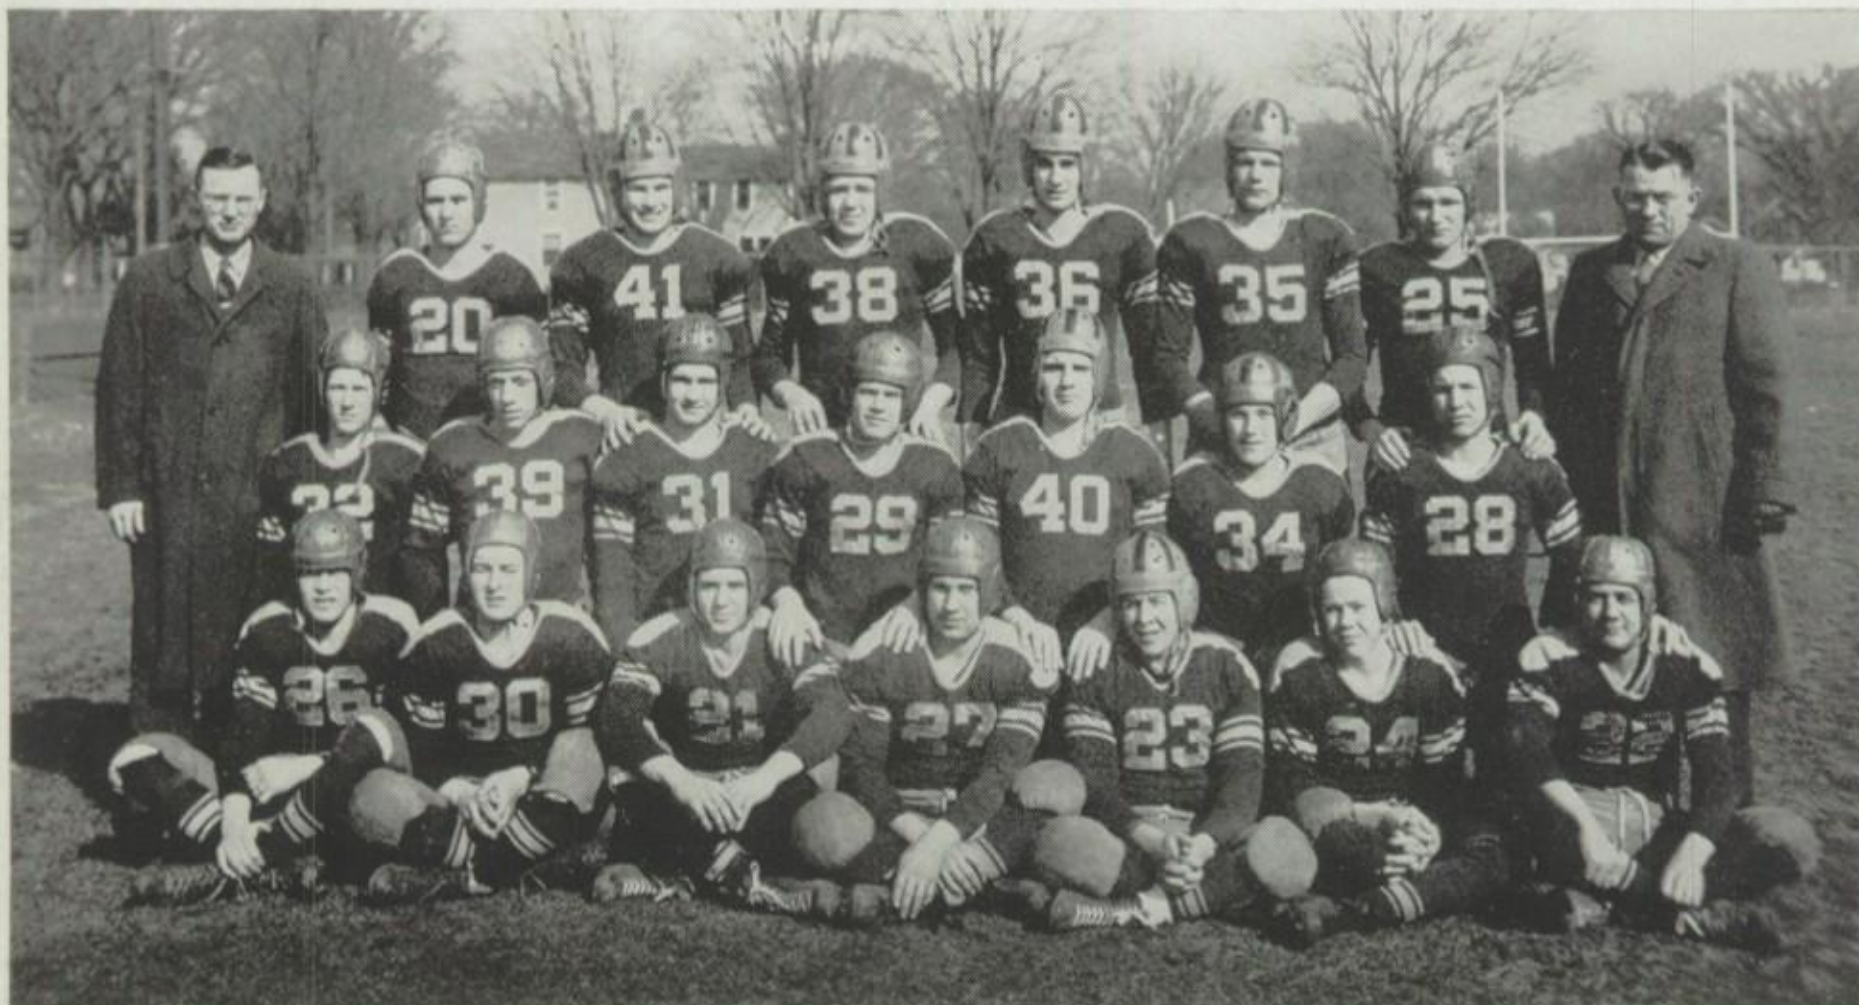

On March 31, the WaMaC conference held its first annual music festival in Marion. Vinton brought home fifty beaming faces and a truly well earned superior rating. On April 14, the preliminary state contest was held in Vinton. There again we were victorious, superior ratings having been given to 22 out of 38 entries. April 28-29 brought the state contest, also held in Vinton. Of the 22 winners of the preliminaries entered in the state, nine of them were victorious. Those receiving superior ratings in the state division were the drum trio; French horn quartet; woodwind quintet; Bob Hilliard, tuba; Glen Primmer, tuba; Mary Jean Countermin, flute; Roger Albert, clarinet, and Bill Berry, oboe. Jeanne Clausen won in the National honor event with a bassoon solo.

Four students accepted responsibilities which also aided in promoting the band work—librarians, Richard Whipple and Nancy Hartman; uniform custodians, Betty Walter and Dorothy Anderson.

Thank You . . .

As the work on the Arrow for 1944 comes to an end, it seems fitting for the editor to show his appreciation for the people who have helped make this book. Without the help of these people, this book could not have been possible.

To the Senior salesmen who really went to work on the sales project; to the entire staff for all the hours of extra work; to Mr. George Hart of the Palace Theatre who so generously gave of his time and energy in putting on the "Arrow" show; to Mr. C. H. Stewart of the Waterloo Engraving Company; to the Cedar Valley Times for their patience and co-operation in arranging and printing our book and to the Greater Vinton Club for their wholehearted support, our thanks to all.

Don Winsor, Editor.
